

Short Bio of Dave Spalding

Dave Spalding has led the founding of 3 physician-oriented value-based care companies since 2013 including TMA PracticeEdge, an ACO enablement platform jointly launched by the Texas Medical Association and Health Care Services Corporation in 2015. Since its founding, TMA PracticeEdge has established 15 physician-led ACOs with 250,000 attributed patient lives across the state of Texas while generating over $40 million in shared savings. At the national level, Dave serves on the board of the Patient-Centered Episode System Center (“PACES”), a public private initiative dedicated to creating a single industry standard for defining clinical episodes of care using the current medical record and payment systems. Prior to his current role, he spent 15 years in leadership at the Blues including Health Care Services Corporation and BCBS of Minnesota. Dave was a subsidiary business and joint venture executive for high growth platforms including roles as the CEO of SelectAccount (a national HSA custodian) and the board chair of Availity, LLC, a healthcare IT company owned by several large Blues Plans and Humana.

Dave’s professional career began in 1990 with a decade in corporate finance and investment banking. He earned an MBA in international banking from the Thunderbird School of International Management in Phoenix, AZ in 1990.
